Edmund R., Lavina B., and Francis B. Wentworth
Music Scholarship Application Guidelines

The Edmund R., Lavina B., and Francis B. Wentworth Music Scholarship was established by Francis B. Wentworth, a long-time member of the United Methodist Church of Auburn. She was a choir member who had a great interest in music and music education. Applications are encouraged to be submitted by May 1st to:

The United Methodist Church
Music Scholarship Committee
439 Park Avenue
Auburn, Maine 04210

The following guidelines are used by the Scholarship Committee in determining awards:

1. Scholarships are awarded for music lessons, purchase of musical instrument, tuition for music education courses, music camps, and other expenses in pursuit of musical interests.
2. Scholarship funds are available to a young person, preferably, but not necessarily, a member of the United Methodist Church of Auburn to further his or her musical education.
3. Award recipients must be willing to share how the money was used with the Auburn United Methodist Church congregation.
4. Include a reference from a teacher or pastor who is familiar with the applicant's musical interests and states why the applicant should be considered for the scholarship.
5. The Scholarship Committee may request additional information.
6. The Scholarship Committee will include but will not be limited to:
 - a. Two members of the Music Committee
 - b. One Trustee
 - c. The Pastor of the United Methodist Church of Auburn
